

14th Hypervelocity Impact Symposium

Delegate Information

Monday 24th - Friday 28th April, 2017
University of Kent, Canterbury, UK

We are pleased that you are attending the 14th Hypervelocity Impact Symposium and look forward to welcoming you to the University of Kent.

In the meantime, this information should help to prepare you for your visit.

Conference Registration

The conference registration will take place at the Canterbury Cathedral Lodge Hotel on Sunday 23rd April between 4pm-8pm. Directions to the hotel can be found here. Alternatively, walking directions from the train stations can be found here. You will need to enter via the Christ Church Gate, and advise staff you are attending an event at the hotel to gain access.

There will also be an opportunity to register for the conference on Monday 24th April between 07:30 and 09:00.

The registration desk will be open at regular intervals during the conference for any queries.

Conference Venue

The conference take place at:

Keynes College,
University of Kent,
Canterbury,
Kent. CT2 7NP

Lunch & Refreshments

Lunch will be provided on all days of the conference except Wednesday. Refreshments will be provided on each day.

Dinner will be provided on Monday and Wednesday but delegates are free to explore Canterbury on Tuesday and Thursday.

More information on local restaurants can be found here.

14th Hypervelocity Impact Symposium

Delegate Information

Monday 24th - Friday 28th April, 2017
University of Kent, Canterbury, UK

Social Events

Welcome Drinks Reception at Canterbury Cathedral Lodge on Sunday 23rd April

The welcome reception will take place at the Canterbury Cathedral Lodge Hotel between 6pm – 8pm. Drinks and canapes will be provided.

Dinner in Darwin Conference Suite on Monday 24th April

A three course dinner is included on the Monday night in the Darwin Conference Suite, situated on the University of Kent campus. The suite is located in Darwin College, which is E5 on the campus map. The evening will begin with drinks at 18:00 and guests will be called to eat at 18:30.

Conference Banquet at Leeds Castle on Wednesday 26th April

The conference banquet will take place at Leeds Castle, known as “the loveliest castle in the world”.

Return coach transport will be provided from Canterbury City Centre. Delegates are to make their way to Canterbury Bus Station which is located on St Georges Lane in front of Whitefriars shopping centre.

Coaches will be leaving Canterbury at 18:00 promptly. Return transport will leave Leeds Castle at 22:30 and will return delegates to the bus station. Delegates will then be required to make their own way back to their hotels.

If you would like to drive to Leeds Castle, then please do inform us and we will issue you with the directions.

Internet access

Delegates will be supplied with a computer log-in in order to access the internet during their stay. Log-ins and instructions (for the University network) will be supplied during registration. Wireless zones are available in teaching and social areas on campus. It is a condition of connecting to the internet using the Kent network that all laptops should be running current anti-virus software and the latest security updates.

14th Hypervelocity Impact Symposium

Delegate Information

Monday 24th - Friday 28th April, 2017
University of Kent, Canterbury, UK

Getting here

Visit us online for information on travel and maps for the University of Kent Canterbury campus – including road, rail, air, bus and walking directions.

Bus Travel

Delegates will be provided with a bus ticket for use throughout the week. Buses run every 10-15 minutes from the campus to the city centre.

Smoking

The University operates a non-smoking policy in all areas.

Messages

Between the hours of 09:00 and 17:00 messages for delegates can be left with the Conference team on 01227 828000. Outside of these hours urgent messages only can be left with Campus Security on 01227 823300

Campus facilities

Set in over 450 acres of beautiful parkland overlooking the historical city of Canterbury, our campus provides a perfect location for conferences and events guests. We have a wide range of award-winning restaurants and bars, a cinema, theatre, shops, banking, as well as a gym and outdoor sports facilities.

Historic and cosmopolitan Canterbury

Our campus is just a 20 minute walk or short bus journey into the cathedral city. Canterbury has something for everyone to enjoy – whether you want to take a boat ride on the River Stour, shop 'til you drop at big name stores and independent boutiques or sample some of the local culinary delights in award-winning restaurants and bars.

We hope you enjoy your time with us at the University of Kent and look forward to welcoming you back soon.